

Congratulations!

You have successfully completed the course:

Social Media Summer School

The Social Media Summer School brings everything together in 4 modules. From understanding how social media works to managing your content and measuring results.

Analyzing accounts and defining a strategy

Setting goals and planning content

The role of a Social Media Manager and how social media works

Working with metrics to understand and improve results

Managing a content calendar

Creating and publishing posts across platforms

This diploma/certificate certifies that the indicated training has been completed. It does not constitute a degree or an official professional qualification.

metricool